Going abroad – my mind map

Abstract:

This mind map is used as an exercise to prepare teacher training students in a seminar at the university for their stay abroad. With the help of this mind map, they can reflect on their knowledge and expectations regarding their host country and institution.

Going abroad – my mind map

What made me decide to plan my stay abroad?

- ❖ What particularly appeals to me?
- ❖ What possible concerns do I have?
- ❖ What specific questions or expectations do I have?

Host country and education system

- ❖ What do I spontaneously associate with my host country?
- ❖ Why did I choose this country/institution?
- ❖ What else do I need to find out about the country/ educational system?

My stay abroad in:

What experience do I have?

(Experience abroad, experience with host country, language skills, intercultural experiences or topics in my studies, etc.)

What do I already know about my placement location?

(School, educational institution, university, etc.)
